

James Dick

BSc (Hons) Agric Dip FBOM
MRICS FAAV ACI Arb
CEnv

James is a Partner at Andersons' Aberdeen office. He is responsible for business consultancy and land agency both in the Northeast, and in other parts of Scotland.

Specialist Skills

- Business appraisal and strategic planning
- Business analysis
- General farm business consultancy
- Land agency including agricultural tenancy matters, compulsory purchase and compensation, wayleaves, valuations
- Expert witness work

Qualifications and Experience

2009 – Joined Andersons Northern as partner, and established Aberdeen office.

1998 – Self-employed agricultural consultant and land agent based in Aberdeen.

1992 – Joined Hayes McCubbin Macfarlane as agricultural consultant and land agent in Aberdeen, on a wide variety of matters, including environmental schemes.

1987 – Joined RSPB as land agent, based in Sandy, Bedfordshire, but working on conservation projects throughout England and Northern Ireland on reserves owned by the Society.

1981 – Joined Michael Barne and Partners as trainee land agent in the southwest of Scotland.

1980 – 81 – Diploma in Farm Business Organisation and Management at North of Scotland College of Agriculture, Aberdeen

1976 – 80 – Honours Degree in Agriculture, Aberdeen University

Personal

Born in 1958, James is single and has no children. His interests include golf, squash, tennis, badminton, and birding.

ANDERSONS NORTHERN trading as ANDERSONS THE FARM BUSINESS CONSULTANTS

PARTNERS:-

P H PITCHFORD
G P RICKETTS
B KELLAGHER

R J SEVERN
D J SIDDLE
T J M DICK

Offices at Thirsk,
Penicuik and Aberdeen

the FARM business
CONSULTANTS